Supplier membership of the MSAANZ offers significant exclusive benefits:

- Advertising in the MSAANZ member newsletter
- A listing in the membership portal with a link to your website
- The opportunity to participate in the trade show evening associated with the annual conference (additional charge).
- Engagement with important cultural institutions at both a national and regional level throughout Australia and New Zealand.
- The opportunity to give tangible support to the stores that you might supply, strengthening their businesses for benefit of the communities they serve.

It is important to understand that supplier membership of the MSAANZ does not confer any entitlement to supply. It is up to each supplier member to engage with organisations on an individual basis.
